Slifer House Hosts The Front Porch Country Band

August 26th - "World China Tour" Release

Pre-Release Of New 2-Disc Album At Sunday Concert

LEWISBURG, PA - The Front Porch Country Band will perform its first live USA show of the year on the front porch of the Slifer House on Sunday, August 26 at 3:00 p.m.. The globe-trotting band is returning to the very site where they first began their journey to international stardom as the most listened to country recording artists in the world on the world's largest internet music community. With over one million plays and a dozen worldwide number one songs, the band dominated worldwide charts for more than a year.

Old-fashioned Ice Cream Social. The show commemorates the five year anniversary of the band's very first live concert and also celebrates the pre-release of the band's new two-disc album, "The World China Tour" which features original American country music inspired by the band's time in China. The complimentary ice cream social will follow the live show.

The Front Porch Society. Fans making donations to the Slifer House Museum will instantly become members of The Front Porch Society and receive a FREE copy of "America Standing Tall; The American Trilogy," The Front Porch Country Band's tribute to America's fallen heroes.

The World China Tour. The Slifer House will serve as a launchpad for The Front Porch Country Band's latest world tour. Plans call for the tour to again culminate in China next summer, in preparation for the 2008 Summer Olympics in Beijing.

The show will complete the Slifer House Summer Concert Series for 2007. Professional video and photo crews will be on hand to capture this momentous occasion. The band will also be meeting with fans and signing autographs.

Limited edition album includes 18 brand new studio tracks as well as DVD video highlights of the band's latest tour of China.
